Income-tax raids on Indian Express Group of Companies

1881. DR. YELAMANCHILI SIVAJI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that following recent raids on the Indian Express group of companies by the Income Tax Department Officials, re-opening of the completed tax assessments has been ordered from the assessment year 1972-73;

(b) if the answer to part (a) above be in the negative, what are the details of the proceedings launched against the above companies and for what violations;

(c) what are the details of big business houses, if any, whose completed assessments since 1972-73 have been re-opened during the last five years; and

(d) what are the specific provisions under the Income Tax Rules to prevent harassments of the innocent by motivated officials and whether such instances have been reported to Government during the last three years, if so, what was the number thereof, year-wise?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANIL SHASTRI): (a) and (b) Searches under Section 132 of the Inclme-tax Act were conducted on the Indian Express group of cases between 7th March, 1989 and 23rd March, 1989. The income-tax assessments of the concerns of this group were re-opened on the basis of investigations carried out and action initiated prior to the commencement of these searches as per the following details:

Naras of the case	Assessmsnt year	Date of re-opening
Andhra Prabha (P) Ltd., Madras	. 1983-84	8-3-1989
Express Nswspapsrs Ltd., Madras	. 1972-73 to 1979-80	27-3-1989
Indian Ex-iress Newspapers (Bombay) Pvt. Ltd.,		30-3-1989
Express Trad-rs (Firm) Bombay	. 1976-77 to 1979-80	30-3-1989

(c) There are 76 large industrial houses and 19 single large under takings which are listed by MRTP Commission as on 31st March, 1988. These houses and under-takings comprise of 1655 companies, in addition to several entities such as firms, HUFs and Individuals. All these companies, firms, HUFs and Individuals are assessed to tax by different assessing officers all over the country. The effort and time required to compile information regarding re-opening of their assessments since 1972-73 may not be commensurate with the results sought to be achieved. However, if any information about any specific case is required, the same can be made available.

(d) Proceedings under the Income-tax Act including proceedings for re-opening assessments under Section 147 can be initiated on satisfaction of the conditions provided in the Income-tax Act. The existence of these conditions constitute in-built safe-guards in the Income-tax Act to prevent any harassment. Besides, the Income-tax Act also provides for appeals to appellate authorities. If there are any grievances arising out of any administrative lapse on the part of the assessing officer, appropriate administrative authority can be addressed for redressal of such grievances.

It is not practicable to furnish the number of grievance petitions received during the last three years as such petitions are received and dealt with at various levels within the Finance Ministry and in the field offices of the Income-tax Department located all over the country.
